ADMINISTRATION

Dr. Harold H. Metcalf
Superintendent

Mr. Alfred Odegard
Assistant Superintendent

The hard working schoolboard is ever conscious of the growing community and school population. Because of their interest, the student lounge and the new chemistry laboratory were added to the college.

Board of Education

Mr. Howard A. Miller, Mr. William Doherty, Mr. Charles C. Donovan, Mrs. Wilhelmina Pignotti, Mr. Marvin Gavin, Dr. Dale Collins, and Mr. John Mier.

Georgia Barbrow, Secretary

Cora Hansen, Library Clark

Personnel

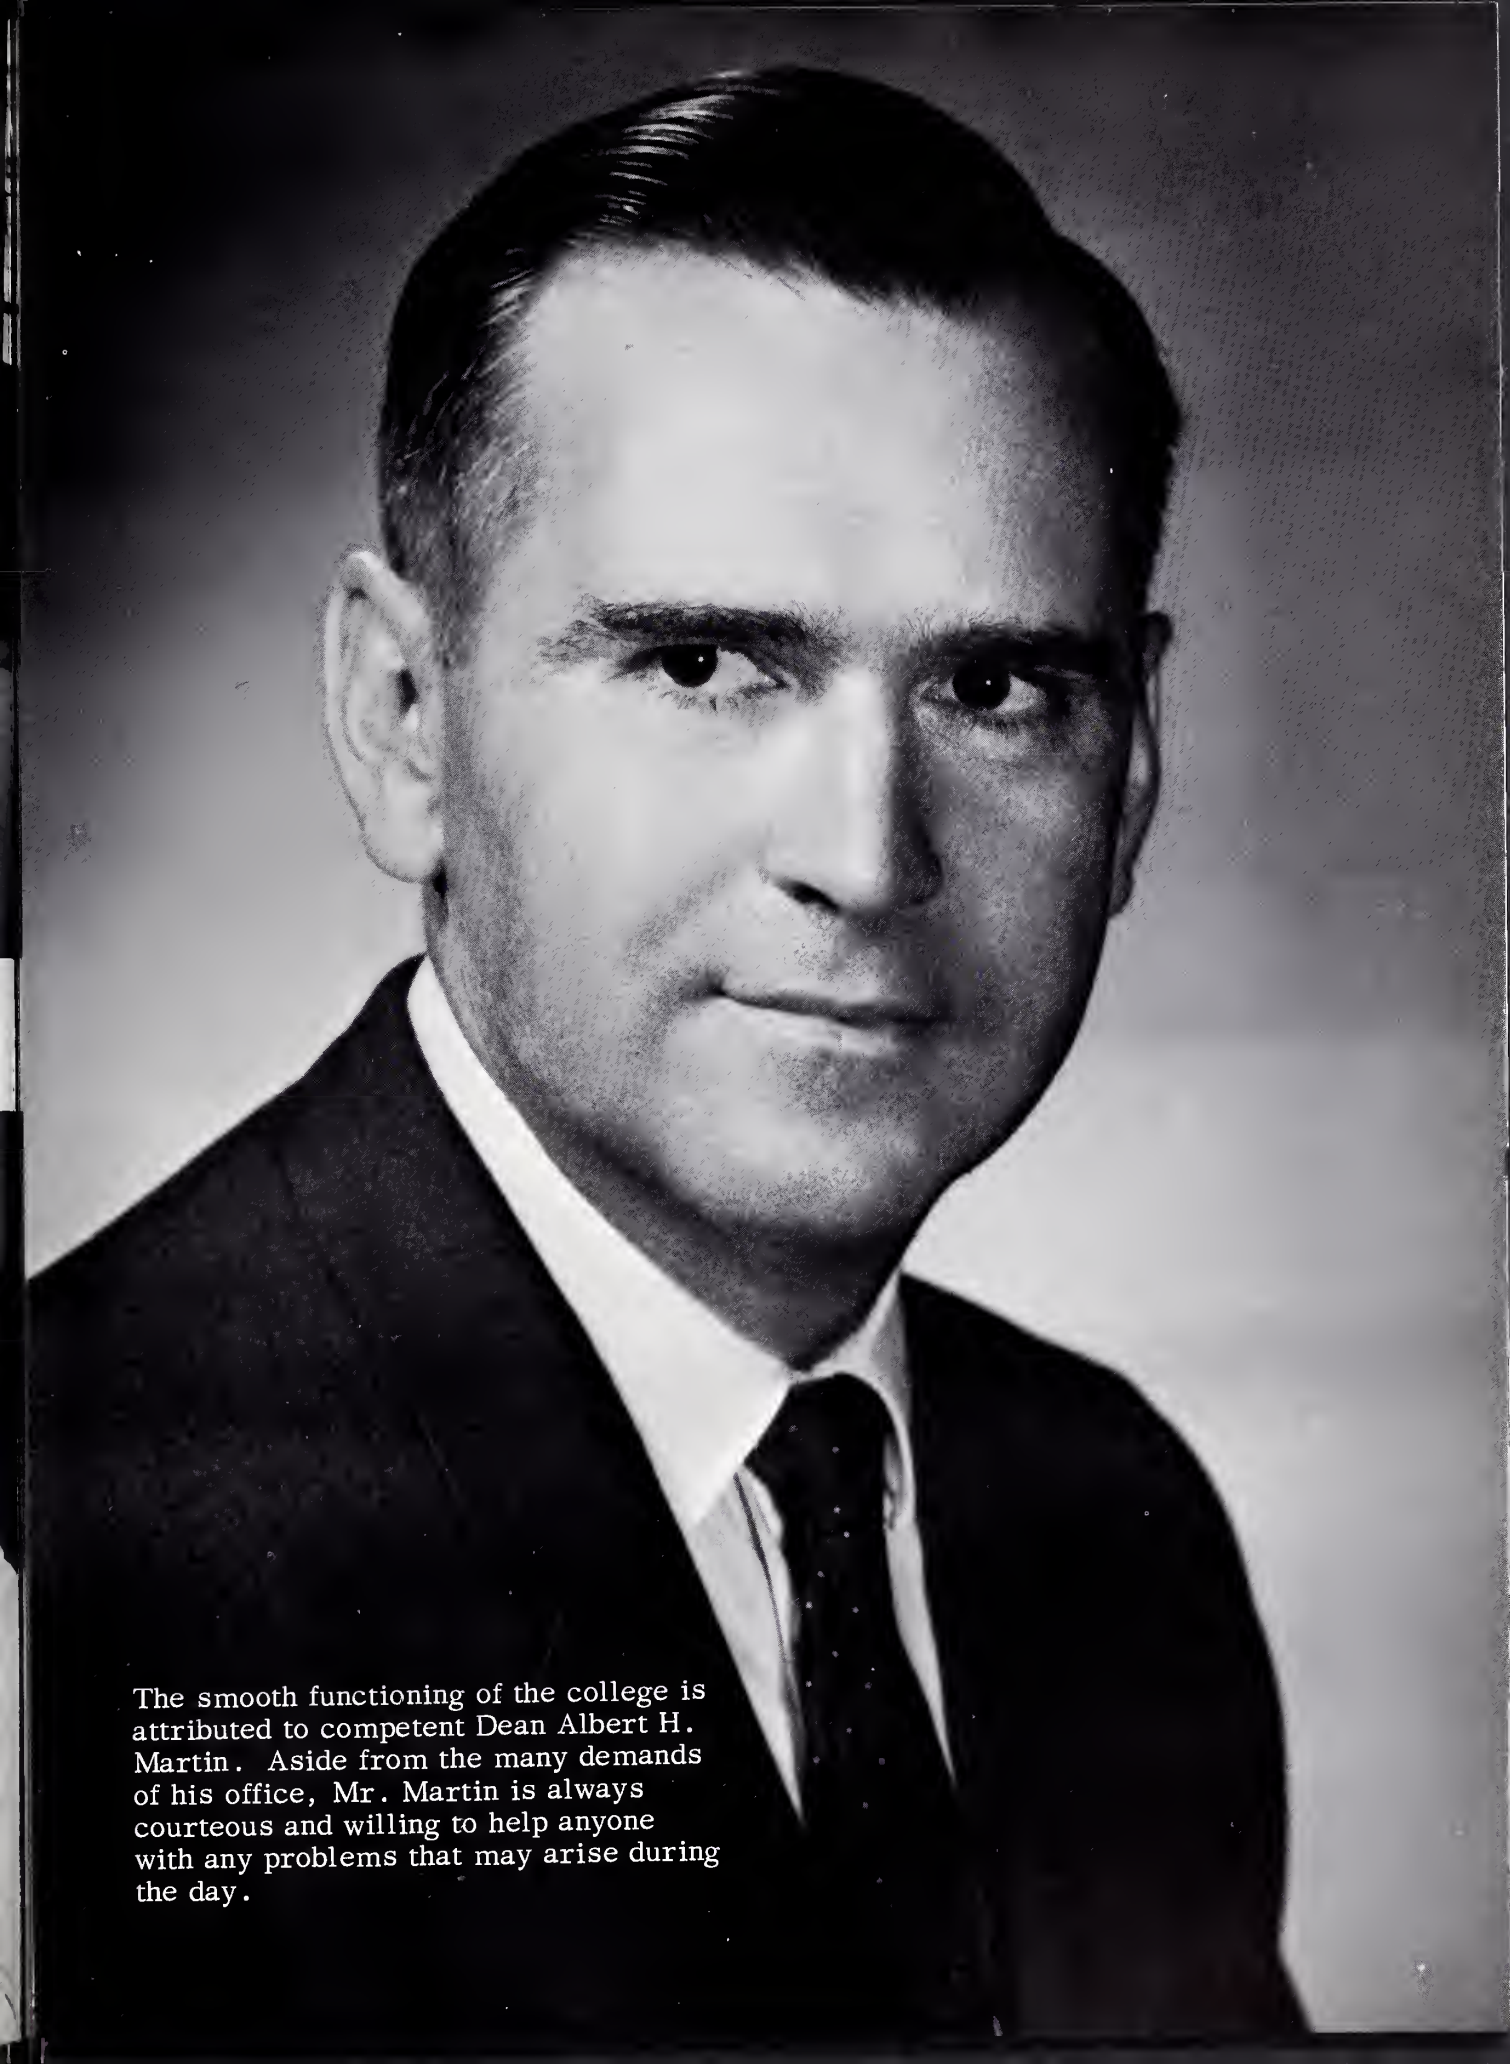
Percy DeVault, Maintenance

Virginia Montesonti, Clerk



The smooth functioning of the college is attributed to competent Dean Albert H. Martin. Aside from the many demands of his office, Mr. Martin is always courteous and willing to help anyone with any problems that may arise during the day.

DENTAL

A regular course in the college curriculum, Dental Assisting is taught in the Wallace House. Teachers are Dr. Myron Bardige Dr. John Fox, and Mrs. Eleanor Wylde.

The girls receive a thorough course of study in hygiene, theory, dental terminology, procedures, and first aid. The girls receive on-the-job training during the second semester.

The school furnishes trained, qualified dental assistants for dentists. Graduates are presently employed in the South Suburban area.

ASSISTANTS

CLASS OF '63

ELECTRONICS

Mr. Nick Colbrese, instructor, points out some intricacies of electronics to Ray Spych and Jerry Pagorski. Ronald Compratt and James Cameron use the lab.

Electronics was introduced this year. It includes training and instruction in direct and alternationg currents, elementary and advanced electronics, vacuum tubes, transistors, and semiconductors. Courses are also available in TV circuit analysis, electronic currents and systems, and elements of automation.

Upon completion of the technical electronic program, the twenty-two enrollees will be granted a two-year certificate.

Robert Schaefer and Ron Gilkison study transistor diagrams. Roger Gruberman checks out equipment and Mr. Roy Hoffman, instructor, explains point to student Garth McWhorter.

That's when I was a freshman.

Yearbook and newspaper editors, Beth Richards, SPECTRUM, and Kay Smith, VIKING STAR, compare layout, pictures, and copy for their respective publications.

SPECTRUM AND

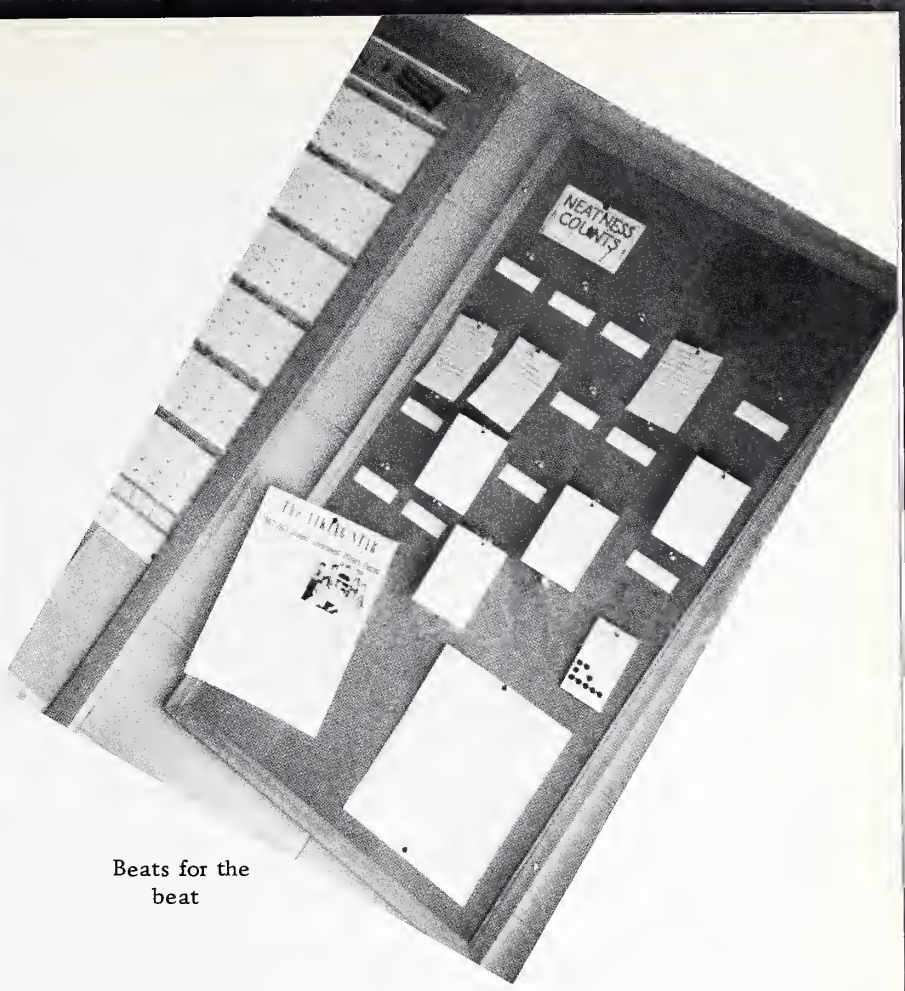
Charles Rosenberg helps Diana Ribeca, as Beth Richards, SPECTRUM editor, tells her, "No! Not there--you cut the wrong thing!" Nancy Wilk and John Rauch examine pictures to go in the yearbook.

Although both are journalistic endeavors, the newspaper requires more writing, and the yearbook involves skill in photography.



Beats for the beat

VIKING STAR

Assisting VIKING editor Kay Smith with an issue of the paper are Gerald Lewis, Carol Wroblewski, Diane De-Glopper, and Marianne Jerabek.

CHEERS!

Win or lose--the Vikings, the Cheerleaders, and their loyal supporters always had fun! Sometimes the trips to away games were long and arduous but the spirits were always high.

Coach J. D. Sarver's fighting Vikings started the basketball season with exciting victories. At the end of the first semester, the team was handicapped because of the loss of three regular starters, Ron Baker, Preston Bouler, and Chuck Kinsey. Although the second semester was not as impressive as the first, finishing with a record of 10 wins and 12 losses, new faces gained recognition as starting regulars. Dave Wroblicky gained polish and skill in shooting and rebounding. Rich Connor and Ken Krizan are among next year's perspective hopefuls.
